

Final Rule Issued Improved Tracking of Workplace Injuries and Illnesses

OSHA has issued a final rule that eliminates the requirement for establishments with 250 or more employees to electronically submit information from OSHA Form 300 (Log of Work-Related Injuries and Illnesses) and OSHA Form 301 (Injury and Illness Incident Report) to OSHA each year. These establishments are still required to electronically submit information from OSHA Form 300A (Summary of Work-Related Injuries and Illnesses). The public inspection version has been posted. The rule was published in the Federal Register on Jan. 25, 2019. See the OSHA news release for more information.

UPDATE: OSHA Recordkeeping Rule | 6 - 7 Hours

Course Description: This course is designed to assist employers in identifying and fulfilling their responsibilities for posting certain records, maintaining records of illnesses and injuries and reporting specific cases to OSHA. This course is for employees of companies who have responsibilities under OSHA's revised Recordkeeping Rule 29 CFR 1904. Improve the quality and consistency of injury and illness data, while simplifying the system for your employer using OSHA's recordkeeping rule. The 29 CFR 1904 regulation is designed to improve employee involvement and protect the privacy of an injured or ill worker.
